Are you a passionate, energetic and dedicated teacher looking for your next challenge? The Governing Body of this vibrant, popular and successful school is looking to appoint an enthusiastic Lower Key Stage 2 Teacher to join our team from September 2026. We are a warm, inclusive community committed to providing excellent learning opportunities for every child. The post is a fixed term contract.

About us

We are a “Good” school (Ofsted 2024) where children are at the heart of everything we do. We pride ourselves on our Character Education, supportive staff and a respectful learning environment.

What we are looking for:

- A qualified teacher with a passion for lower key stage 2
- An innovative classroom practitioner who creates engaging, inclusive lessons.
- Someone dedicated to nurturing the academic and pastoral growth of children.
- A team player with excellent communication skills to work with parents and the wider community.
- An ability to lead a subject is desirable but not essential.

What we offer:

- A welcoming, supportive and friendly staff team
- Excellent professional development opportunities and career growth
- A well-resourced school with modern technology

How to apply:

We would love to show you around! Please contact the school office by phone: 01670 353255 or by email: schooladmin@newdelavalprimary.co.uk to arrange a visit. Application packs are available from this website, from the school website and from the school office. An enhanced CRB check is required for this post.
